Applying for BSL

Application Deadlines

Business School Lausanne accepts applications from qualified candidates throughout the year.

Start Dates

All of our BBA programs

- Accelerated BBA Program (2 years)
- BBA Program with Internship Option (3 years)
- Double Degree BBA Program (2.5-3 years)
- Millennial BBA Program (3 years)

have three start dates each year:

- Fall (September)
- Winter (November)
- Spring (February)
- Summer (May)

When to apply?

As soon as you have decided that BSL is the right business school for you, you should submit your application. We do our best to process applications up until the program start date, but are unable to guarantee a place for anyone applying less than 30 days before the start of a BSL program.

VISA Advisory

It takes between 6-8 weeks to receive a visa for studying in Switzerland. If you require a visa, and want to be sure to start at BSL for a specific term, you should send in your application 3 months prior to the program's start date in September, November, February or May. If we receive your application less than 10 weeks prior to the program's start, your ability to start will depend on whether or not your visa arrives in time.

Admission Requirements and Admission Process

BBA Admission Requirements

BSL's admission requirements for the BBA program are:

- International Baccalaureate (minimum score 32), High School Diploma, Swiss Maturité, Swiss Professional Maturity (in commerce), German Abitur,
- English "A" Levels (minimum of 2 "A" Levels, 3 recommended), French Baccalaureate or equivalent
- Fluency in English at a TOEFL level of 80, IELTS 6 or equivalent
- The successful completion of a personal interview with our Associate Dean, either in person or by Phone

BBA Admission Process

The BSL Admissions Committee will only review complete applications. A complete application file must include the following documents:

- Application form completed and signed
- Official transcript and High School Diploma or equivalent (Foreign Official Transcripts and High School Diploma or equivalent must be certified by a legal authority, such as a public notary with translation when necessary)
- Curriculum vitae/resume (overview of studies and activities)
- A convincing motivation letter/essay highlighting:
 - your perspective on your professional future
 - reasons why you wish to study business
 - why you believe BSL is the right school for you
- Two reference letters (letters should be from non-family related adults who can provide insight to your personal qualities. School principals, college counsellors, teachers, sports coaches, and employers all make good references)
- English TOEFL score or equivalent
- Two identical passport photographs
- A copy of your passport or identity card
- A copy of your student permit, if available

Transfer candidates

BSL accepts transfer credits from recognized institutes of higher learning, provided the course description fits that of a course offered at BSL and a satisfactory performance has been demonstrated. A maximum of 100 ECTS (out of the total of 200) or 60 US Credits (out of the total of 120) transfer credits will be allowed. Originals or certified copies of transcripts are required in order to gain transfer credits.

Personal interview

After the Admissions Committee has reviewed your application file, you will be invited for an interview and will be given the opportunity to attend a class with our current students and professors. The interview will be conducted at BSL, or by telephone for those not in Switzerland, by our Associate Dean. The applicants will receive a final response within three weeks.

Terms and conditions

1. Tuition Fees and payment terms:

The BSL BBA is a three year bachelor program with different options

- a) The third year can be completed at Dublin Business School (Ireland) resulting in a Double Degree
- b) The third year can be done at BSL (including internship possibility), or
- c) The program can be completed in two years

The program consists of 200 ECTS or 120 US credits.

- Tuition fees for the entire two or three year BBA Program: CHF 87'000.—

The tuition fees include:

- all printed course notes and case studies
- examination and graduation
- use of printers and Internet connection

- The above fees do not include travel, accommodation, meals, medical or accident insurance (please refer to the section "Expenses")

- Additional fees: Administrative fee (non-refundable) CHF 1'900.—

- Fees are payable according to the schedule on BSL's invoice, which requires payment of two terms in advance. In order to secure a place in the program, and secure an entry visa on-time, payment must be made upon receipt of the invoice, in favor of BSL, Lausanne IBAN CH96 0024 3243 0056 9576 0 with U.B.S., swift code UBSWCHZH80A.

For those who do not require an entry visa, payment needs to be made at least 1 ½ month prior to beginning the program.

2. Procedure for late payments and non-finalized study visa/permit formalities:

- BSL reserves the right to suspend a student from attending classes if the payment of the invoice has not been made in accordance with the payment deadline.
- Students may also be suspended from attending classes if they have not finalized administrative matters with regard to the study visa or permit application process.
- Balances which remain outstanding beyond the deadline for payment may be subject to a 1% monthly interest charge.
- The final transcript and the diploma will only be released upon full settlement of the student's account.

3. Cancellation and Postponement Procedure:

- Please note that the authorities in charge of releasing visas do not inform BSL about the progress of the visa request. Refusal letters are sent directly by the Swiss authorities only to the visa applicants. If the request for a study visa is refused, BSL will refund all fees except the administrative fees at the condition BSL is informed in writing by the student within 10 days of receipt of the refusal letter. If BSL is not informed about the visa refusal within the 10-day timeframe and the term has started, BSL is entitled to keep the payment for the first term of studies.
- If BSL has confirmed either Preliminary or Final Acceptance and the student has paid the fees but subsequently wishes to cancel or postpone the application, BSL has to be notified of this decision in writing and by registered mail.
- In the event of cancellations or postponement being received by BSL on or before the first day of the month preceding the first day of the term in which the student is due to enter the program, BSL will be entitled to 12.5% of the fees due in respect of the entire BBA program. Payments in excess of this percentage will be refunded.
- In the event of candidates cancelling or postponing their application after the first day of the month preceding the first day of the term in which the student is due to enter the program, BSL will be entitled to 25% of the fees due in respect of the entire BBA program. Payments in excess of this percentage will be refunded.

4. Leaving the program – Financial effects :

- If a student wishes to withdraw from the program for whatever reason, BSL has to be notified in writing as soon as possible. The term in which a notice is given and the following term remain payable.
- If a student is asked to leave the school for academic/disciplinary reasons in accordance with the “Student Policy Manual” or due to unpaid fees, the fees are payable as indicated above.

5. Amendments to the study plan

- The study plan represents an integral part of the “Terms and Conditions”. Amendments to the study plan due to transfer credit have to be discussed with the Dean and/or Associate Dean, who will confirm any new version of the study plan. Transfer credits duly justified by originals or certified copies of transcripts can only be discussed during the first term of studies.
- Oral agreements with regard to the courses students are attending or not attending are not recognized by BSL’s administration.
- BSL invoices according to the study plan. Consequently, when the study plan changes, the corresponding tuition fees will be invoiced or credited if courses have been added or removed. Invoices in respect of such changes are payable as indicated by BSL.

Entering Switzerland on a foreign passport for study purposes

BSL Applicants who seek to enter Switzerland on a passport for any of the countries mentioned below must be in possession of a STUDY VISA issued by a Swiss Embassy or Consulate before entering Switzerland for the purposes of studying:

Europe: Turkey and Eastern Countries except Bulgaria, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, Poland Czech Republic, Romania and Slovenia.

Africa: All Countries

Asia: All Countries, except for students from Brunei, Japan, Malaysia and Singapore

Oceania: All Countries, except for students from New Zealand

Americas: All Countries

Notes:

- This list may be changed at any time. It is advisable to check with the Swiss Embassy or Consulate for the latest update.
- Applicants from all countries require a STUDY PERMIT to stay in Switzerland for the purposes of studying. The STUDY PERMIT is applied for on arriving in Lausanne.
- The applicant cannot be accompanied by other members of his/her family.
- A TOURIST VISA does NOT satisfy the above requirements and does NOT authorize a student with a foreign passport to study in Switzerland.
- The Swiss authorities may require up to three months to process a study visa application from submission date of the application is submitted to the Swiss Embassy/Consulate.

BSL prepares all study visa and permit applications for its students. However, Embassies and Consulates provide the information on the process to the student, not BSL. Therefore students are expected to keep BSL informed about the progress of their visa applications.
